FOLK MUSIC FROM DENMARK

Pørtner's Komplot is a folk music quartet with a different approach. The music is old material from peripheral areas of Denmark interpreted in new patterns for listening. The performance is combined with exciting tales about the origin of the tunes. The sound is acoustic folk music inspired by rock, jazz, and classical music, and the aim is to play concerts with a strong atmosphere expressed by both seriousness and a good laugh and interaction with the audience.

Pørtners Komplot was founded in 2005 to record a CD with music from the Reventlow Collection 1799. It turned out to be a very strong constellation of musicians, so the quartet decided to continue working together. In 2009 Pørtners Komplot began a new project with ancient music from an old, worn, handwritten tune book from Vendsyssel (North Jutland).

Pørtner Komplot will release their 2nd album "Oldefar på Tour" in april 2010 with music from this project as well as their own compositions.
